

Job Description

Harness assembler

Summary of Responsibilities

The Harness Assembler assembles electrical cables and harnesses under the supervision of the production manager

Main functions

- Consult and interpret assembly diagrams
- Install and position parts (wires, connectors and cavity plugs, latch) according to established standards
- Perform the necessary tests and validations
- Make minor repairs required according to the procedures
- Install and fix the protector on the parts (electrical tape, tube (tubing) or self-locking fasteners (Tie-rap)
- Inspect the work executed according to the procedures of the quality plan

Conditions of access to the profession

- Good vision
- Good dexterity
- Ability to read plans and specifications
- Resourcefulness